COOKS AND WATERDO.

QUIT CENTRAL BODY The Cooks and Walters union decided to withdraw from the Central Labor union at its meeting Monday night. The members of the union say that this action was taken because of the factional differences within the central body.

The action of the Cooks' and Walters' union has started a discussion among the members of the central body as to the eligibility of E. D. Skinner to serve as secretary-treasurer of the central body that has been declared by president Samuel Geomers to be the 'bons file Central Labor union of El Paso.'

Skinner is a member of the Cooks' and Walters' skinner is a member of the Cooks' and Walters' union and a delegate from that union to the central union. The faction which is hearded by Victor A. Lee and Teddy McHold claim that Skinner cannot continue to serve as servetary-treasurer since he is not a delegate to the Central union.

The H. W. Walker faction chaim that president Compers has ruled that when an officer is elected be can serve out his term recardless of the action of his local union.
